A Taste of Venice Venice, Italy is one of the most beautiful and most interesting cities on earth. Sometimes, though, it is hard to navigate - not only on the streets, around the tourists and tourist trade. Our tour of Venice will approach Venice from another angle - the back streets, the local wine bars and the restaurants where locals eat.

Despite a place that looks like it's handcuffed to the 1960s, the Venice offers quite good Italian food at remarkably good prices. I had the veal Scallopini. I have to say that I was concerned when the waitress didn't seem to have ever heard of it! But the food came out piping hot and very delicious.
